Our Assembly this year is on Saturday the 13th October 2018, at St. Peter's in Solihull. Our topic is Migration, "I was a stranger and you welcomed me". Bishop William Kenny will lead the opening prayer and faith reflection. We have a selection of workshops that will complement our speakers. Registration forms etc. are now available on our website. Also, please discuss the subject of Migration in your groups, with parishioners, etc. Then bring your thoughts on this with you to help make the discussion relevant to you and your area.

See below the discussion points that we will be using at the Assembly.

- ✚ How do you feel challenged by this passage from Matthew's Gospel in the light of what you have heard this morning?
- ✚ What practical steps can you and your local Justice and Peace group take to extend welcome to the stranger in your locality?
- ✚ How might welcoming the stranger benefit both the person being welcomed and the local community that is doing the welcoming?

If you have not already booked on you can use the online booking form:

A MODEST PROPOSAL to solve the Palestine Israel conflict

A talk by Karl Sabbagh

Karl Sabbagh is a local British-Palestinian author who has written extensively about Palestine.

He will be talking about his latest book which explores the idea of a one-state solution.

It is time, he says, to look at what this would mean, politically and practically, for all those involved.

This is a Justice for Palestinians - Leamington Spa event.

We're really looking forward to visiting Coventry for our Conference and AGM in October. We will have a speaker from Coventry Cathedral, a speaker from Tearfund and an expert on the Nuclear Ban Treaty. Along with workshops and plenty of time for discussion and prayer.

It's all free but it helps if you can register in advance <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/christian-cnd-agm-and-conference-2018-tickets-47987553063>
