These are photos of a three day leadership training programme in Mangsang. Mangsang is located about 15 kilometres from Rongjeng in East Garo Hills.

The distance of 15 kilometres takes nearly an hour to reach there. And that is the end place as people have to walk to their villages or go by two wheelers.

The training was three days duration and it was wonderful to see how people from the villages are eager to learn. They said that alcoholism, extortion of money and teacher absenteeism in schools and lack of health care are crucial problems of the area.
